"Biggest Little Rodeo in the West"

THE RENO RODEO & AG SOCIETY

is extremely proud of and happy with the results of our 5th Annual Reno Rodeo held on August 4 & 5 at Consul! Each and every spectator, contestant, volunteer, "partner" (either financially, with labour, media coverage, event awards, goods or enthusiasm) is equally responsible for the continued success and growing popularity of this annual event!! Thank you! Even bigger plans for 2013! Our dream was to build a facility/rodeo that would showcase our lifestyle, values, heritage, and community spirit. From the "little cowpokes" to the "pioneers", we strive to offer entertainment, fun, and respect to all.

Sharing profits is also part of the plan, as is the scholarship—awarded to Jared Parsonage this year. Hard work, planning, cooperation, committed partners and a vision have carried the day, and the whole community is to be commended and sincerely thanked.

A special thanks to:

- ◆ Reamer Trucking of Consul for the buckles awarded to every contestant in the Kids' Rodeo;
- ◆ the "Tarp" auction buyers—the Lynn Stokke Group, the Corbett Faulkner Group, and Wayne Kisell Consulting.
- ◆ the 5th Reno Rodeo Commemorative Poster buyers, Gay & Alpha Holeha.

The music was awesome and enjoyed by all, too! The food, the stock, the prizes, the auctions, the weather, the crowds, the contestants—EVERYTHING WAS HOT!!

Please check our website—consulrenorodeo.com—for results, pictures, awesome sponsors, and do sign our guestbook... comments & suggestions welcome.

Again, thank you all!
