Fire Prevention Week

Plan your escape now

Maintain your smoke alarms

Family discussion

Practice often

Get out fast, closing doors behind you
Use stairs, not the elevator

In case of a real fire

Call out to others

Call for help from a neighbor's home
Never go back inside a burning house

"Have Two Ways Out.®"

OCTOBER 7 - 13, 2012

Fire Prevention Week takes place from October 7th through to October 13th, 2012. The theme for this year is "Have Two Ways Out.®". Fire Prevention Week is recognized every October during the full week – Sunday through Saturday – that October 7th falls on. Despite the fact that fewer fire losses are reported in Canada, still, on average, eight Canadians die from fire every week. Most of these fires are preventable and caused by careless behaviour. That is why it is critical to educate Canadians and incite them to act. To this point, Fire Prevention Canada's newly revamped website contains fire prevention and educational material. It is designed for the public to consult at www.fiprecan.ca.

THANK YOU

The 3rd Annual Cowgirl Round-Up enjoyed a wonderful gathering with ladies from Consul, Govenlock, Maple Creek, Shaunavon, Eastend, Medicine Hat, Frontier, Gull Lake and surrounding communities. The cowgirls voted to support HALO as their charity this year as well as the "Bunkhouse" in the soon-to-be-built Maple Creek Hospital. HALO will be given $1000, and the bunkhouse will be given $1000, plus there was a generous donation of $500 from the Living With Cancer Support Group of Maple Creek specifically for the Bunkhouse Fund!

Many thanks to the "cowboys" - Stacey Dolgopol, Craig Dumontel, Bob Black, Joe Gilchrist, Dan Black, and Geano Seifert. These fine men BBQed the steaks, cleared the tables, washed the dishes and tended bar for the cowgirls. The Dinner Belles from Maple Creek catered the lovely meal and we thank them sincerely. Kudos to the generous silent auction donors. The mercantile vendors also did an awesome job of showcasing their wares. Congratulations to Helen Gilchrist, this year's Cowgirl Honouree!

Come join us next year on the last Saturday in September!
