Ya-hoo! Consul does it again!

What a great party! What amazing results!

The gross earning from the Supper and Auction is an astounding $55,249. A very big THANK YOU to the volunteers – you made it happen. I wrote down the names of 52 people at the supper who helped in the kitchen, bar, games, auctions, handling the money and many odd jobs. There were others who helped before and after the auction by organizing and picking-up donated items, decorating and cleaning. Thanks to Glen Rogers for coming from Weyburn to be the MC and Darren Lutz, auctioneer from Medicine Hat, for donating their time. A special thanks to Miranda Wenzel who kept everybody on track, got most of the donations and who used her DUC's dinner experiences to organize the games and auctions into a fun party.

Of course, we can't forget to thank Dave & Vicky Manley (Manley Bread & Honey Bakery) and Big Squirt Car Wash (Jackie & Dave Zilkie) for donating the catering and food for the supper. Pioneer Co-op donated the beef and the Smith families donated the potatoes. It was a tasty beef supper topped off with Vicky's yummy fruit crisp.

Thank you to the donors. Your amazing selection of auction gifts made the event a success. And thank you to everyone who bought supper and drink tickets, placed bids and won items at the auction. Your generosity is why we were able to raise $55,249. The donated items for the auction were supplied by:
