HELP WANTED

Setting up the tents, readying the rodeo grounds, mowing, hauling supplies, and generally preparing for the "Biggest Little Rodeo in the West" is a lot of work....as is packing up everything after for next year! If you could give a few hours before or after the rodeo (Monday) it would be so appreciated! We thank all who pitch in every year and welcome all offers of labour. Having a list ahead of time would be very helpful and appreciated. Contact Doug Richards if you want to help (and have fun, too!). Teenagers welcome, too! We'll put you on "the volunteer list", aka "The Prairie Dawgs"! Thank you!!

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the Consul Grad Class of 2013, Ashley, Hannah, Lindsey, Emilie, Cassidy, Taryn, Stefan, Cody, Casey, and Kolby for the card at my graduation. It was very nice of you to remember me and came as a big surprise. I wish you all the best in your own endeavours. - Karsten Jensen

I would like to thank everyone for being a part of my life up until now. Consul is a great place to live and I am so grateful that I have been privileged to grow up in such a supportive community. Thank you to everyone who attended our graduation and made us all feel so special! I also greatly appreciate the cards and gifts. I would not be the same person today if it was not for you all!

COUNTDOWN TO CONSUL'S 100TH

of Days to the Kick-off: 358

In the year leading up to Consul's Centennial Celebration, as space allows, The Reno Reader will feature trivia, pictures, articles, and other features to get us ready for the big event!

Let's start at the beginning, 1914, with this piece about Consul taken from Our Side of the Hills history book.

"In 1914, when the railway came through, the Village of Consul was surveyed and soon became the center of activity for the area. Garry Brothers built the first building in Consul which was a livery barn. Soon many others followed such as two lumber yards, the Revelstoke lumber was managed by George McMurphy and the Beaver Lumber by J. Engles, the Home Café was run by Mrs. Curtis, the post office was run by Lou Parsons, the barber shop was run by Dave Anderson. There was Herb's Drug Store and many other enterprises followed. Some of these were a hardware store run by J. Ross Clarke, a laundry run by Fred Lee, a bank managed by Mr. McNair, two grain elevators and Oscar Schmidt's dance hall.

"The community progressed over the years from oxen on prairie trails to late model vehicles on all weather roads and from coal oil lamps to Saskatchewan Power.

"Although the village was established in 1914, the actual date of incorporation was not until three years later June 12, 1917. This information was given to us by the archives in Regina. The first overseer, or mayor as we now call this position, was David A. Johnson with Alex Dunbar acting as secretary."

Dave Johnson's new store built in 1916. He sold it to Willis Bartlett in 1923. Willis, along with his sons, David & Jim, ran the store for many years. Willis' grandson, Bruce, sold it to the South-west Co-op in 1965. Did you know there was once a lunch counter in it & that the south side was a Robinson's Store?

First building in Consul, the livery barn. What was a livery barn? It was a stable where horses and vehicles were kept for hire and where stabling was provided.
