NOTICES

In lieu of a bridal shower for Kristine Wedman, bride-to-be of Chris Wenzel, there is a Wishing Well at the Consul Co-op Store for anyone who would like to give to the future newlyweds. It will be there until October 31st.

Copies of the 100th Anniversary Slideshow, "A Walk Through Time" that was presented by Consul Museum will be available at the Consul Craft Fair on October 22nd for $15 each. You can preorder your copy by contacting any of the Consul Museum board members—Joan Parsonage, Jean Jones, Bill Reynolds, Ann Behrman or Susan Pridmore—or send an email to: consulmuseum@gmail.com.

FYI: Recently, Consul Museum was able to sign up with Tech Soup Canada and upgrade some software for a very discounted price. If your nonprofit group is looking to upgrade, check out techsoupcanada.ca. They have partnered with generous companies such as Microsoft, Adobe, Symantec and Cisco to help nonprofits, charities, and libraries. They also have a number of learning resources on their website with technology tips, blogs and articles on many topics.

A NOTE OF THANKS TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE CONSUL COMMUNITY

In July we [Jack and Jean Wagner, Keith and Mary Wagner] had the pleasure of attending the 100th anniversary celebration of the Village of Consul. We were "blown away" by the quality of the event. Every aspect, from the parade, to the quilt show, to the picture parade at the Seniors Centre, to the fantastic fireworks, to the church service, was obviously well-planned and well-executed. It is truly amazing for such a small community to host an event of this size with a level of competence that would put many larger places to shame. The community spirit that has always and continues to characterize the community makes us proud to call it home and always happy to return for visits.

Events of this type make it possible for those of us who have moved away from the community to maintain links with our past and our heritage. They provide great opportunities to reconnect with old friends, some of whom we may not have seen since having left more than 50 years ago. A great pleasure.

Congratulations to the organizing committee and all the residents of the Consul area who worked so hard to make this such a memorable event.

Your efforts were greatly appreciated.

Jack [Red] and Jean Wagner Keith and Mary Wagner

CONSUL RINK
