Govenlock News

(Taken from Maple Creek News
 February 12, 1914)

(online at <http://sabnewspapers.usask.ca>)

The Govenlock Commercial Club gave one of their popular dancing parties last Monday evening. The purpose of these parties is to raise money to build a hall. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. X. Wright from "The Meadows", Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hammond of Stormfield Ranch, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kennedy, Kelvnhurst, D. C. and Gordon McMullan, Kelvnhurst, Will McRae and sister, Battle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Ned McKay, Six Mile, Mrs. Marshall and family, Battle Creek, Paul Hester and sisters of Willow Creek and many others.

Wm. Govenlock has completed the plans for the Hotel Lindner. The work of construction will be commenced in early spring.

S. J. Curtis of Govenlock is hauling hay from Wild Horse Lake. Mr. Curtis has large interests in both places.

W. G. Jones and A. R. Rowe with a crew of men are putting up ice for the coming season.

B. A. Jahn, our thrifty rancher, is busy breaking horses. Mr. Jahn has sold a number of horses to farmers in this area.

Arthur Sanford has just completed his new house and is getting comfortably settled there.

Wm. Govenlock has opened a general blacksmith and repair shop. He has secured the services of Alex Skinner who is one of the best horse shoers in Canada.

Besides the [?] acres sold by W. T. Jones for the townsite of Govenlock, the C.P.R. are buying more from Amos Burton for side tracks, etc.

Morris Summers entertained the Young Bachelors Club at Queen Mary Hill Ranch on Jan. 27. Cards were the form of entertainment for the evening, Gilbert Carter taking the prize. Delicious refreshments were served.

LAST CHANCE TO VISIT THE OLD PASTIME THEATRE / HISTORICAL MUSEUM IN EASTEND!

The Eastend Historical Museum is now virtually empty, except for one last exhibit – “Thor the Brontothere”.

What should we do with an empty building?
THROW A PARTY OF COURSE!!

The Eastend Historical Museum would like to invite everyone from far and wide to attend the Pre-Valentine’s Day Family Dance & Box Social, Saturday, February 7, 2015. When the museum first opened in the Pastime Theatre building in 1981, a dance & Box Social was held to celebrate. So it is fitting to celebrate the building’s many years of service to the community the same way. It will be your last chance to visit the building before it is torn down.

Ladies – put together your best lunch for two and your talents to work decorating the box. Gentlemen – bring your cash so you can bid to win the boxed lunch of your choice and share it with the lady who put it together.

Doors will open at 6:30pm and admission is free (donations are always gratefully accepted – any donation $20 or more can receive a tax receipt), the dance music will begin at 7:00 and the Live Auction for the Boxed Lunches will begin at 8:30. You will have an opportunity to share any stories you may have of the Pastime Theatre or the Museum. If you wish to share a story, but would prefer someone else tell it, just write it out and someone will do that for you. There will be plenty of coffee, tea and juice/punch available throughout the evening. We will also be selling 50/50 tickets (you could win cash!). All proceeds of the box lunch sales and 50/50 draw will be dedicated to the New Building Fund.

We haven’t forgotten about the kids. While the adults will be sharing the lunch boxes, we will have lots of food that the children can enjoy. There are fun activities planned for kids of all ages. There is a Cupcake Decorating Contest – we will provide everything needed for that. We will teach you how to Line Dance. And hasn’t every child wanted to write or draw on the walls or floors? Well now you can! We will have writing materials on hand and anyone can write or draw anywhere on the walls or floors - Just For Fun!

And you can have your picture taken with Thor. He’s been off-limits before, but now you can get up close and personal!

So please join us on Saturday, February 7 for a fun evening and a chance to say farewell to the building that has served us so well and for so long.
