GO, ROCKETS, GO!

Reno Rascals Early Learning & Child Care would like to thank the CIF (Community Initiatives Fund) for providing some funding in support of our school-aged children's summer program. We were able to enhance our program with children being offered new experience opportunities through our dance and art camps in addition to other outdoor activities. We also encourage and welcome ideas and interests from children/parents for some after-school activities as well. All school-aged children (max. 12 years) welcome!

Consul Minor Hockey is excited to partner this year with Ranchhouse

Meats in Shaunavon for their sausage fundraiser as they are great local supporters! They offer four kinds of sausage in two-pound vacuum-sealed and frozen packages. Last day to order is December 4. Pick-up will be at 5 pm at the rink on December 15. For more info, see the bulletin board at the skating rink or talk to any minor hockey parent.

Your donations of non-perishable items are delivered to the Salvation Army Food Bank in Maple Creek. Thank you for your generosity in helping local people have a merrier Christmas and a brighter new year!

2015-2016 Consul Skating Rink Fees
Family $250 Adult $140
Student $120 Pre/K $105
Daily $5

Please make cheques payable to the Consul Skating Rink. Payments can be left in the booth.

Living Hope Ranch is pleased to announce that it will be temporarily located at Diamond Willow Retreat. On December 1, 2015, LHR will begin the process of getting Diamond Willow ready to pass inspections, hiring and training staff, settling in the Equine Assisted Learning horses, etc. While the Living Hope Ranch program will be adjusted to fit in with Diamond Willow's bookings, it will remain true to its mission of teaching girls how to make positive life choices.

Diamond Willow Retreat Center will be housing the Living Hope Ranch which is a place for restoration for teenage girls in crisis. We want to assure everyone that all previous bookings for 2016 will be honoured. Please phone Linda at 306-299-7555 if you have any questions.

We have been able to be open daily until 8pm, Monday - Saturday; also Sundays 11:30am -2:00ish. We will try this schedule for a few more weeks and see if there is interest and a need. Besides breakfasts, soups, sandwiches, subs, wraps, salads and our regular breads and goodies baked daily, we have at least one Feature Meal or Pizza for the evenings.

One idea we have is to present a menu ahead of time. We welcome your suggestions, too. Starting Friday we will prepare a printed menu for the week ahead. One can be picked up at the bakery.

The Battlefords will host Ice Hockey and Ice Curling for the Saskatchewan 55+ Provincial Games 2016.

Ice Curling is scheduled for March 15-17, 2016 at the Northland Power Curling Centre in North Battleford. Categories include Women's, Men's, and Mixed teams. Each game is 8 ends. Ice Curling follows Canadian Curling Association Rules.

Stick Curling is scheduled for March 15-17, 2016 at the Northland Power Curling Centre in North Battleford. There will be no age or gender categories. Each team consists of 2 people and may be both men, both women or one of each. Gold, silver, and bronze will be presented to the winners. No advancement to Canada Games.

Ice Hockey is scheduled for March 18-20, 2016 at the Battleford's Arena. There is a minimum of 11 players per team. Each game is two 20 minute periods. Ice Hockey follows Canadian Adult Recreation Hockey Association (CARHA) rules.

Registration fees for hockey will be $600 per team and curling is $140 per team (4 person). $70.00 per team (2 person). Curling includes 3 game guarantee. Fees include banquet. Additional banquet tickets $20.

Please refer to the Saskatchewan Senior Fitness Association (SSFA) Rulebook for more information.

If there are any teams/ individuals 55+ who are interested please contact SSFA for eligibility information at www.ssfa.ca.
