THANK YOU

There are not enough words that can be said to thank everyone for the phone calls, texts, food, gifts, flowers, cards, visits and support to all of us in the passing of Annie Blythman. We truly do live in the best part of the world, surrounded by great family, friends, and communities. Thank you to each and every one of you for helping us through this very sad time. Art, Brad, Cindy, Von and families.

Celebrate Heritage Day on February 15!

For the week of February 15, 2016, the National Trust for Canada encourages Canadians to celebrate Distinctive Destinations: Experience Historic Places.

Canada is rich in historic sites, special places and events that tell our story and delight visitors from near and far. Our distinctive destinations are as varied as Canadians themselves: Aboriginal Pow Wows, music halls, traditional fishing villages, historic lighthouses, old stone mills, prairie festivals and botanical gardens.

Heritage tourism offers adventure, storied history, vibrant culture and stunning landscapes for every age group and interest: from trendy 'hoods to rural farmsteads, kid-friendly forts to sacred landmarks, and country inns to grand hotels.

Whether travelling across town or cross-country, Canada's distinctive destinations are definitely worth the trip! (See more at <https://www.nationaltrustcanada.ca/visit-discover/heritage-day>).

Consul Museum is proud to be a preserver of local heritage. Thank you to everyone who has contributed to our website and to our fundraiser that makes it possible, The Reno Reader.
