INFORMING THE RESIDENTS OF THE RM OF RENO SINCE 1986

PUBLISHED BY CONSUL MUSEUM INCORPORATED

The 'Rock & Roll Bonspiel' was held on January 20th with twelve teams participating in a fun day of curling. The winner of the A event was the Lane Sanderson team with Jay Stokke, Travis Seifert and Cody Reamer. Second in the A event went to the Stephen Behrman rink. The B event was won by the Heidi Beierbach team, consisting of Heidi & John Beierbach, Jodi & Carl Parsonage and Tracey Schacher. Second in the B event went to the Gregg Campbell team from Medicine Hat. The Colleen Dean team won the title of Best Dressed.

Thanks to all the curlers that participated and to everyone that worked the bar and helped out throughout the day! Special thanks to Dale and Doreen Pridmore for looking after the ice and helping organize, to Laura Erickson and Quinn Zilkie for going the extra mile in the food booth, and a big THANK YOU to Blake Sanderson and Travis Seifert for stepping up when there was a late night plumbing emergency!

MLA REPORT

Congratulations, Scott Moe, new Premier of Saskatchewan.

On February 2, Scott Moe was formally sworn in as Premier of Saskatchewan and President of Executive Council by Her Honour, the Honourable Vaughn Solomon Schofield, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan.

"I am honoured to be sworn in as the Premier of Saskatchewan and commit to serve on behalf of all Saskatchewan people," Moe said. "As premier, I will always stand with the people of our great Province."

Premier Moe's first cabinet contains 17 strong women and men; 5 MLAs enter cabinet, 2 MLAs change portfolios, and 10 ministers retain the current responsibilities. Each MLA is bringing qualities to the table that will help set targets and will make sure that we strive to reach them.

Thank you, Brad Wall, for your strong leadership and vision for Saskatchewan and its people. Your dedication has helped put Saskatchewan on the map, and, as a result, has seen a decade of growth.

Saskatchewan—once a place to be from; now Saskatchewan is the place to be.

Doug Steele, MLA—Cypress Hills

SNOWMOBILE RALLY A SUCCESS

The Consul Community Hall Board would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who in any way helped in making the Snowmobile Rally held on January 21, 2018 a success!

First & foremost we would like to thank all the riders and their sponsors. Without them our rally would not have happened. Also, a huge thank you to Randy & Lisa Olson, Randy & Cindy Genert and Kevin & Stacey Tittle for the use of their yards as the stops along the route. To the girls that helped cut cards along the route, Maggie Wenzel & Nicole Anton, another thank you.

More thank you's -

- To all the women who donated chili,
- Linda Anderson & Donna Reynolds for the buns,
- Kest Holdings for the buns & hotdogs,
- Ann Behrman for the coleslaw,
- South Country Inn for the muffins,
- All the help in the kitchen - Linda Brown, Linda Seifert & Ann Behrman,
- Travis Seifert & Blake Jones for looking after the bar.

A special thank you to all the businesses & people that donated items for the raffle table:

Member Service Representative

Consul Branch

The Member Service Representative is where the story begins. In this role you are the first hello, the first smile – you are first welcome for our members. The Member Service Representative not only responds to our members’ needs but anticipates them and asks questions to better understand, and then matches the right product, service or expert.

Key Accountabilities

- Greeting and welcoming our guests, establishing and building trust and rapport
- Providing exceptional service and support to our members
- Posting financial transactions including deposits, withdrawals, transfers and cheque cashing
- Uncovering needs of customers through conversation; referring customers to in-branch experts
- Continually participating in learning opportunities and acquiring new knowledge on products and services
- Setting individual and team goals with supervisor and maintaining daily and weekly plans

Is this Job for you?

You have a passion for customer service and love nothing more than building that relationship and making your members happy. You take pride in your ability to ask questions, seek out information, and find out what our members need. Your smile warms up a room and your genuine, caring approach shines through in every customer interaction.

What We Can Offer You!

- An employer that values you and recognizes the power you have to create success for yourself while making a difference in the financial well-being of others
- A financially stable and growing team that believes in providing world class service in our local setting

Apply to Denise Tully, Branch Supervisor by February 12, 2018.
Only those considered for an interview will be contacted.
