Reno Multiple 4H Club Report

By: Shiloh Derald

The Reno Multiple 4-H Club has had a great time at some of our yearly fundraisers and events. We started out January with District curling. Two of the three teams that attended the District curling moved on to Regionals in Gull Lake on February 2nd. At Regionals our senior curling team had a great day but unfortunately did not move on. Congratulations to the junior team who moved on to provincials in North BattleFord.

On January 14th we held our annual bingo bake sale and had a great turn out. The bingo was fun and the baking was yummy. We appreciated everybody for coming out to support our club on such a cold night.

On February 2nd we had an afternoon of speeches. All of the 4H members showed up prepared with great speeches. Everybody did a fantastic job! Those who placed first or second will be moving on to district speeches in Piapot. A huge thank you goes out to our judges! Our judges were Steven Lightfoot, Laura Erickson, JoAnn Davidson and Jamie Whitney. Also, thank you to Barb and John Gabbruch for sponsoring the participation prizes!
