thank you

We would like to thank everyone for all the gifts, cards, and congratulations as we welcomed our baby girl Tayleigh. We were disappointed we couldn't celebrate and have a traditional baby shower but you all made us feel so special. We are once again reminded of the generosity and kindness of this amazing community. We look forward to the day we can introduce Tayleigh to the people of Consul.

Thank you again,
Coy, Jaide, and Tayleigh Tillier

We would like to extend a huge thank you to everyone that helped make our wedding so special. The amazing ladies that planned and hosted my bridal shower, and all the wonderful people that attended and gave gifts. Although the day wasn't exactly as we planned, we appreciate all the people who sent cards, gifts and best wishes. Hoping to celebrate with you in the future.

Kayla (Sanderson) & Andrew Majek

Christmas Greetings from the Bakery in Consul!

Wishing the best of health and provision for you this season and coming year. We all appreciate the kind support of our local residents and neighbouring communities this year! What a year it has been.

We will be open with regular hours: 7am-8pm Monday-Saturday, and modified hours on Sundays, until December 24th, 2 pm, when we will close until the new year!

★★ Gift Certificates are a great gift option! Plus we are also promoting opportunities to tour and learn a new skill at the bakery. 1 1/2 hour classes offered which includes a tour, playing with yeast dough, and a session on one topic: soups, pastry, cookies or muffins. $65/person. Family rates. Group sizes limited to 4. Give a gift of an experience! Call the bakery @ 306-299-2050 and sign up.

If God had Chosen Cowboys

If God had chosen cowboys, instead of those fellers herdin' sheep
To welcome the Baby Jesus, while the world was fast asleep,
Would the Christmas story, and the carols that we sing
Be a little different, maybe have a different ring?

When the cowboys got the message from them angels heard on high,
They'd have ridden into town, shootin' their pistols in the sky
And thundered to the stable bathed in that star's bright light,
I'm tellin' you boys, it would not have been a silent night.

And little town of Bethlehem, you would not lie still
When the cows, spooked by the angels, stampeded over the hill.
And that bunch of rowdy cowboys had to turn 'em all around,
And not quit lookin' until every calf was found.

Then come back into town, and belly up to the bar,
To buy a round for them kings who'd traveled from afar.
The next morning on the mountain they'd tell outfits far and near
About the angels, and the stampede and the savior who'd come here.

"The Lord is my cowboy" would begin the most familiar psalm, and
The parable of the lost calf is the story that would calm
The sad and lonely cowboy spending Christmas on the trail,
If God had chosen cowboys to headline the Christmas tale.

- Steve Lucas
